

The Transition Journey: from a Patient's Perspective

Patient monitoring

Further meetings with doctor if needed

Consultation with doctor

- Talk through information letter with doctor
- If desired, meet with doctor again prior to transition

Receive medication

Get to know the new medication under professional guidance

Information letter before visit

Receives letter with the last supply of medication, prior to transition

